WORKSHOPS

Each workshop will begin with a presentation of case studies, followed by a discussion amongst participants.

A - WITH US, NOT ABOUT US – MAKING REFUGEE PARTICIPATION REAL (ROOM 62, WITH INTERPRETING)

This workshop will look at methods to foster the participation of asylum seekers and refugees in societies from arrival to the granting of citizenship, with a special focus on participatory mechanisms, such as mediation and mentoring.

Moderator: Andras Kovats, Director, Menedek (HU)

Case studies:

- Elodie Mignard, Scottish Refugee Council (UK)
- Annasophia Heintze, Advisor to the Mayor in charge of refugee inclusion, City of Erlangen (DE)
- Rita Finco, Researcher, Paris 13 and Milano Bicocca University (IT)

B - FROM SOLIDARITY TO POLITICAL CHANGE (ROOM 63)

Over the past year, many citizens have become service providers for front-line humanitarian emergencies but also integration needs. Some choose to join mainstream organisations as volunteers while others have developed their own initiatives. This creates opportunities (fast mobilisation, innovative and entrepreneurial strategies) for better inclusion of refugees within communities but it can also present challenges including to the work of professional organisations and the authorities. This workshop will discuss how traditional asylum/migration stakeholders can open up to citizens' initiatives in order to create structural solutions to attain refugee inclusion.

Moderator: Dani de Torres, Founder, Antirumours Global / Council of Europe expert

Case studies:

- Thomas Huddleston, Policy Analyst, Migration Policy Group (BE)
- Barbara Day, Domestic Resettlement Section Chief, Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration (USA)
- Sophie Mirow, Project Manager, Refugees Welcome (DE)
- Denise Ranson, Support to citizens' initiatives, Ciré (BE)

C - HOUSING CRISIS VS. "REFUGEE CRISIS" (ROOM 3210 – 3rd Floor)

The conditions in which people live determine to a great extent their health, well-being and ability to engage in gainful occupation, pursue self-improvement through education and recreation and, as a consequence, attain a decent standard of living. This workshop will analyse challenges and solutions for permanent and adequate housing for refugees in the EU.

Moderator: Huibert Haccoû, IFHP Council Member, International Federation for Housing and Planning

Case studies:

- Grethe Gung, Project leader, Bergen's Housing for Refugees (NO)
- Audrey Vassalli, Project Officer, Forum réfugiés-Cosi (FR)
- Sorch Edwards, Secretary General, Housing of Europe (BE)
- Sam Healy, Refugee Coordinator, Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration. U.S. Embassy Belgrade (SRB)

D - BOLDNESS PROJECT (ROOM 3252 – 3rd Floor)

This workshop aims to bring together creative people who want to work on innovation on a larger scale to bring about transformative change in the way our communities welcome newcomers. How can we align the efforts of policymakers at all levels of government, tech entrepreneurs, NGOs, schools, health services, researchers, faith-based organisations, foundations, diaspora communities, politicians, and many others?

- Eric Young, The Social Projects Studio / Distinguished Visiting Professor of Social Innovation, Ryerson University

E - FROM NEEDS TO SKILLS - THE ROAD TO HIGHER EDUCATION (ROOM 2252 – 2nd Floor)

Education plays a crucial role in encouraging integration. It allows newcomers to make connections and friendships to build self-esteem, master the language and to secure a better life. This workshop will focus on refugees access to higher education, and how innovative programs can overcome existing barriers.

Moderator: Najib Obaid Babakerkhail, Human Right Activist (FR)

Case studies:

- Nora Hauptmann, Head of Public Affairs, Kiron Open Higher Education (DE)
- Michael Ogubai, Projectlead Corporate Partnerships, UAF- Foundation for Refugee Students (NL)
- Jules Roussel, RESOME (FR)
