PREFACE

The ELENA Index of useful addresses lists organisations and individuals providing legal services and other forms of support to those forcibly displaced in Europe. It is not intended to be a complete directory of all organisations and persons active in the asylum field, but reflects the information provided by the ELENA Coordinators in the various countries. This list is only indicative of lawyers and organisations operating in this field and is not a formal endorsement by the ELENA network.

The ELENA Index is meant to serve as a tool for lawyers and legal counsellors participating in the European Legal Network on Asylum in their daily counselling and advocacy work. It provides addresses of colleagues and organisations in other countries which are useful when working with refugee and asylum law.

The ELENA Index is updated on an annual coordinated basis from the ECRE Secretariat. If a country section has not been updated, the date of the most recent update is shown in the disclaimer.

For more up-to-date information, additions, corrections and comments please contact the ELENA National Coordinators in the respective country or the ECRE Secretariat via Email: JZelvenska@ecre.org.

This document is for internal use by agencies dealing with forcibly displaced persons. It can be distributed to individuals with links to such an agency.

EUROPEAN COUNCIL ON REFUGEES AND EXILES

The European Council on Refugees and Exiles (ECRE) is a pan-European alliance of 126 NGOs protecting and advancing the rights of refugees, asylum seekers and displaced persons. Our mission is to promote the establishment of fair and humane European asylum policies and practices in accordance with international human rights law.

Working together with our members and partners to inform and persuade European authorities and the public, we monitor and denounce human rights violations while proposing and promoting fair and effective durable solutions. We accomplish our mission through research, advocacy and the sharing of knowledge and expertise.

ECRE strives for a Europe that protects refugees, asylum seekers and displaced persons with dignity and respect.

“Europe” refers to the broader geographic territory as well as “Europe” as an actor giving access to protection and providing assistance on its territory and outside.

The term “protects” is defined in the broadest sense, to encompass access to asylum, legal and physical protection and integration.

“Refugees, asylum seekers and displaced persons” to include all people seeking protection against their loss of rights due to displacement.

INTRODUCTION TO ELENA

The European Legal Network on Asylum (ELENA) is a forum of legal practitioners who aim to promote the highest human rights standards for the treatment of refugees, asylum seekers and other persons in need of international protection in their daily individual counselling and advocacy work. The ELENA network extends across most European states and involves some 500 lawyers and legal counsellors.

ELENA's objectives are pursued by:

- providing and reinforcing contact between legal practitioners in different European countries who work on asylum cases;
- facilitating the exchange of information and experience between legal practitioners across Europe;
- studying the implementation of national, European and international law relating to refugees and other persons in need of international protection;
- organising seminars on specific topics relating to refugee law and making the results available to practising lawyers;
- promoting the development of national networks of legal practitioners specialising in asylum law.

ELENA reinforces direct personal contact between lawyers to promote cooperation on individual cases and practice.

The work of ELENA is coordinated by the ECRE Secretariat in Brussels in continuous and close consultation with the ELENA National Coordinators comprising practising legal advisers from a range of European countries.

VII. LEGAL AID

Since 1 January 2021, the Federal Agency for Reception and Support Services (BBU) has been providing legal advice and legal representation in the following procedures:

- Application for international protection (granting or withdrawing procedures).
- Measures terminating residence (return decision, entry ban, expulsion and residence ban)
- Detention pending deportation

Persons in these procedures are entitled to legal aid during the appeals procedure

AUSTRIA (☎+43)

(to file the appeal and before the Federal Administrative Court), and in certain cases during the procedure of first instance before the Federal Office for Immigration and Asylum (BFA).

Unaccompanied minors receive legal aid and are represented by BBU during their admissibility procedure, after which a local youth welfare office serves as their legal guardian, which is then also responsible for their legal representation in the asylum procedure.

BBU legal advice and legal representation offices, as well as their contact details and opening hours can be found here: <https://www.bbu.gv.at/en/what-we-do/legal-advice-locations>

BBU is a federal agency of the Austrian Ministry of Interior. Besides legal aid, they also offer basic care during the admissibility procedure, as well as return counselling. For more information, see here: <https://www.bbu.gv.at/en/what-we-do>

There is no entitlement to legal representation in the first instance procedure. However, legal aid organisations and lawyers listed above (Section III, V) may be consulted for legal assistance.

In procedures before the Constitutional Court and the Supreme Administrative Court, where representation by lawyers (Section V) is mandatory, concerned persons without sufficient financial means may apply for legal aid provided by a lawyer.

VI. LEGAL AID

According to the Law on International and Temporary Protection (LITP) legal counselling funded by the state, should be also available for applicants in the first instance procedure who do not possess financial resources or items of greater value that would enable them to maintain an adequate standard of living. The LITP specifies that applicants should, at their request, be provided with legal and procedural information on the approval of international protection, taking into account the circumstances of the specific case, in a language which it may be reasonably be presumed that they understand and in which they are able to communicate.

The right to counselling should be provided by organisations working to protect the rights of refugees or by attorneys with whom the Ministry shall conclude an agreement on the provision of legal counselling.

A public call under the AMIF fund for legal aid providers in the first instance procedure was published by the Ministry of Interior in 2025. The Croatian Law Centre was selected as organisation responsible for providing legal counselling at first instance.

According to the LITP, free legal aid in terms of representation is available in the court procedure and includes assistance in the preparation of a claim to the Administrative Court and representation before the Administrative Court i.e. in the first instance administrative disputes, if requested by the applicant and foreigners under transfer, under the condition that they do not possess sufficient financial resources or things of significant value.

The free legal Aid before the Administrative Court is provided by Attorneys at Law and lawyers from NGO. Current list of providers of free legal aid before Administrative Court is available on the website of the Ministry of Interior (<https://mup.gov.hr/UserDocsImages//2026/1//Lista%20pru%C5%BEatelja%20p ravne%20pomo%C4%87i%20u%20postup ku%20odobrenja%20me%C4%91unarodn e%20za%C5%A1tite%20za%20Upravni%20sud%20u%20Zagrebu,%20Upravni%20sud%20u%20Splitu,%20Upravni%20sud%20u%20Rijeci%20i%20Upravni%20sud%20u%20Osijeku%20SIJE%C4%8CANJ%202026final.xlsx>)

VII. LEGAL AID

According to the Legal Aid Law 2002 access to legal aid is granted only at the judicial review of an asylum application before the Administrative Court. No legal aid is afforded during the first instance administrative examination of asylum applications. The provision of legal aid has been subjected to a “means and merits” test, which has been applied strictly leading to a very limited number of cases receiving such aid.

VII. LEGAL AID

NGOs such as OPU and SIMI provide free legal assistance to asylum seekers up to the first appeal stage. Representation during the appeals procedure before Regional Court is provided by NGOs and also appointed private lawyers. Legal representation at the Supreme Administrative Court is mandatory. Asylum seekers who lack the necessary financial means are represented free of charge at second and higher appeals by appointed lawyers if the respective courts decide to grant free of charge aid (for contact details see section IV.)

Legal aid is provided by all mentioned in section IV. The extent of such aid depends on current funding. Usually, counselling is available in the main office of NGO. OPU also goes regularly to all the centres for asylum seekers (i.e. reception centres, detention centres and accommodation centres) while SIMI goes to the airport reception center.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICE

The Danish Refugee Council can be contacted, but there is no NGO present at Danish airports.

VII. LEGAL AID

Free legal aid is available from the Danish Refugee Council through all stages of the status determination procedure. The Danish Refugee Council makes regular visits to detention centres and asylum centres for legal counselling. In the appeal-process of asylum applicants covered by the Dublin-Regulation, the Refugee Council functions as legal representative.

During the appeals procedure of an asylum case, all asylum seekers are provided with a lawyer paid for by the state. Eligibility for free legal aid in asylum cases is not dependent on a merits or means test in Denmark.

VI. AIRPORT/BORDER SERVICE

There are no lawyers or NGOs present at airports or border crossing points, but the Estonian Human Rights Centre can be contacted (leaflets with contact details have been sent to border crossing points).

VII. LEGAL AID

Legal counselling and representation during the first instance of asylum procedure is provided principally by the Estonian Human Rights Centre (EHRC), in partnership with the UNHCR. This includes explaining the asylum procedure and related legislation, preparing for the asylum interview, assisting with collection of information and evidence relevant to the asylum procedure, representing the asylum-seeker during the asylum interview, challenging provisional asylum decisions and explaining the final decision and options to appeal.

In addition, there are lawyers employed by the Police and Border Guard Board. Once you applied for asylum, you can ask for a lawyer and one will be appointed to you by the Police and Border Guard Board. They provide initial counselling regarding the rights and obligations of asylum-seekers and can represent you during procedure.

For appealing a rejection decision or a detention order; asylum-seekers can apply for legal aid either through the Police and Border Guard Board or apply through the Administrative Court. The Court decides on eligibility based on a limited means and merits test.

The EHRC lawyers also provide legal aid and representation during the appeal procedures, focusing on cases with strategic value.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

No special services are provided to asylum seekers at airports or borders.

VII. LEGAL AID

An asylum seeker has the right to receive legal aid when his or her application is being processed at the Finnish Immigration Service and during the appeal process. State legal aid office decides on the assignment of a counsel.

In the first instance stage of the asylum process (application processing in the Finnish Immigration Service) legal aid is offered mainly through public legal aid offices. An applicant can request the public legal aid office to decide on the assignment for the Finnish Refugee Advice Centre (FRAC) or another private lawyer. In the appeal process applicants can ask the Finnish Refugee Advice

Centre or other private attorneys to assist in the appeal process.

All legal advice and counselling services, both at the first instance stage and at the appeals procedures are covered by the law for free legal aid. Access to free legal aid is always dependent on a means test. i.e whether the asylum seeker has sufficient means or not. Applicants are also entitled to free legal aid in detention hearings in courts.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF ASYLUM LAW AND POLICY

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers are not entitled to state-funded legal aid prior to or during the first instance procedure conducted by the Federal Office for the Recognition of Foreign Refugees.

Legal aid may be granted during the second and further instances before the administrative courts.

A positive decision depends on two major conditions:

1. the applicant must be considered as "poor" (dependent on public means/social benefits) by showing official social aid receipts or
2. equivalent documents;
3. the applicant must be able to demonstrate that his/her application has a reasonable chance to succeed.

Denial of legal aid cannot be reviewed judicially.

VII. LEGAL AID

The Hungarian Legal Aid Act allows for legal aid, including the reimbursement of legal fees, to be granted on the basis of a prior decision of the Legal Aid Office. As a general rule, the applicant must obtain approval for legal aid before approaching a legal aid provider selected from the official register. In urgent cases, the client may contact a legal aid provider directly, and the legal aid provider may claim his/her fees and costs from the Legal Aid Office after the Legal Aid Office once the assistance has been provided to the client. In all other cases, the beneficiary of legal aid first needs to have his/her application for legal aid approved by the Legal Aid Office and may only then approach a legal aid provider of his/her choice.

However, if there is a need for more hours to be spent on a given asylum case, in principle this is possible under the legal aid system – however, in practice this requires much more paperwork and is also time-consuming.

V. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

Legal Counselling will be available. Legal Aid can be requested.

VI. LEGAL AID

Legal aid for international protection applicants is provided through the Legal Aid Board. The Legal Aid Board provides confidential and independent legal services to persons applying for international protection in Ireland. The Legal Aid Board is also responsible for providing legal counselling to people who have not yet accessed legal advice and representation. As well as through its inhouse solicitors and law clerks, the Legal Aid Board delivers legal representation through a Private Practitioners Panel and a panel of barristers.

Country of Origin Information Experts

The Refugee Documentation Centre (RDC) provides a specialist research and query service in support of the work of the Legal Aid Board and Department of Justice agencies involved in International Protection cases. The service is also available to solicitors on the Legal Aid Board's International Protection Solicitors Panel and to barristers who are part of the Legal Aid Board's International Protection sub-panel for Barristers. Applications for the Research and Query Service can be made by completing and submitting an RDC Query Form.

VII. LEGAL AID

For administrative proceedings in front of the Asylum Board no legal aid is provided. However, there are several organisations that give advice to asylum seekers free of charge.

Legal aid is provided only for court proceedings to citizens and to foreigners who have a permit to stay, if without means (the annual income limit from July 20265 has been € 13.659,64).

For civil proceedings the request must be submitted to the legal aid board of the “Consiglio dell’ordine degli avvocati” of the town where the case will be introduced, in the same offices there are lists of lawyers who accept cases through legal aid. The procedure is mainly done through platforms with the assistance of the chosen lawyer.

In case of appeal against expulsion legal aid is provided even for irregular migrants and the request is presented directly to the deciding judge.

VIII. LAWYERS AND LEGAL EXPERTS WITH AN OVERALL KNOWLEDGE OF REFUGEE LAW AND POLICY

The lawyers and the associations mentioned in the previous sections have an overall knowledge of refugee law and can reply to academics and experts if needed. The following list includes only researchers/experts who volunteered to be listed.

II. NATIONAL UMBRELLA ORGANISATIONS / REFUGEE COUNCILS

Society Integration Foundation, in accordance with the decision of the Cabinet of Ministers of 7 December 2021, has been designated as the National Coordinating Institution in the field of the socio-economic inclusion of asylum seekers and beneficiaries of international protection to ensure cross-sectoral cooperation, to strengthen the implementation of integration policy at national and municipal level. The National Coordinating Institution is responsible for coordinating cooperation among the institutions involved in socio-economic inclusion, organising regular inter-institutional meetings and promoting information exchange, analysing key issues and preparing proposals for improving the regulatory framework, ensuring dialogue between decision-makers and the target group, and fostering the development of a set of services that supports the independent inclusion of the target group in Latvian society.

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum-seekers are entitled to state-funded legal aid during the asylum procedure within the ambit specified by the Asylum Law and it is not automatic. State ensured legal aid is ensured to appeal a decision on application of a restrictive measure (regular registration at the unit of the State Border Guard or detention) and to appeal a decision of the determining authority within the scope of the asylum procedure to the court. An asylum-seeker should submit an application to get State ensured legal aid. If an asylum-seeker is not detained, an application regarding his/her income should be submitted too. Court Administration (the institution subordinated to the Ministry of Justice) concludes agreements with legal aid providers about providing State ensured legal aid which covers only preparation of appeals and representation at court. The Latvian Centre for Human Rights is an independent non-governmental organisation which provides advice to asylum applicants in Latvia as the implementing partner of UNHCR. The Latvian Centre for Human Rights provides legal assistance (in the forms of legal consultations and strategic litigation) to asylum-seekers in all stages of asylum procedure. In some cases, consultations are also provided to people granted/rejected asylum. These consultations usually concern residence permits, family reunification, etc.

VII. LEGAL AID

According to the Law on Legal Status of Aliens asylum seekers have a right to free legal aid. The Ministry of Interior periodically announces public competition between law firms and concludes agreement with the winner to provide state guaranteed legal aid, which covers only preparation of appeals and representation at Vilnius District Administrative Court or Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania in asylum cases and preparation of requests and representation in the court of the first instance and Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania in detention cases. Lithuanian Red Cross as the implementing partner of the UNHCR provides legal assistance to asylum seekers, which is not covered by the state guaranteed legal aid, mainly, legal consultations provided at the border crossing points and during regular visits to accommodation and detention centres, strategic litigation focusing on detention cases of vulnerable asylum seekers, non-penalization cases for illegal border crossing and asylum cases with identified strategic element.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

No airport/border services are in place in Luxembourg. However, member organisations of the Luxembourg platform ("Lëtzebuerger Flüchtlingsrôt") are allowed, on a regular basis, to meet asylum seekers which are subject to a retention decision, at the retention centre.

VII. LEGAL AID

There is a legal aid scheme covering lawyers' fees in relation to asylum cases. The scheme covers both the provision of legal advice and legal assistance in the asylum procedure, be it administrative or judicial. The legal aid scheme is available to all asylum seekers with no or low income.

VI. AIRPORT / BORDER SERVICES

There are no such services.

VII. LEGAL AID

Free Legal Aid is provided by the Home Affairs Ministry for asylum-seekers who wish to appeal from the first instance decision of the International Protection Agency. A free lawyer is also provided for the first detention review of detained asylum-seekers, generally happening within one or two weeks from the Detention Order.

For criminal matters, Legal Aid is not means tested, whilst for civil issues the applicant is required to demonstrate financial need and a cause for litigation. An assessment will be made by the Legal Aid Agency on the financial situation of the applicant which will decide if someone's entitled or not.

III. ORGANISATIONS SUPPORTING ASYLUM SEEKERS

See following section.

IV. ORGANISATIONS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

VluchtelingenWerk Nederland
(Dutch Council for Refugees)

VluchtelingenWerk Nederland has approximately 500 local sections all over the Netherlands, consisting mainly of volunteers. These sections provide legal counselling and social assistance to asylum seekers and refugees. Housing and material assistance is provided by national and local authorities. Addresses and telephone numbers of local sections of VluchtelingenWerk can be obtained through VluchtelingenWerk Nederland (see above).

V. LAWYERS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

Approximately 450 lawyers are participating in the Working Group on Legal Aid for Refugees. This Working Group can be contacted at:
VluchtelingenWerk Nederland
Tel: +31 (0)20-3467250 (helpdesk)
In this index those lawyers who have expressed the wish to be mentioned in the list are included. It is not possible to mention all lawyers that are a member of this working group.

The Helpdesk of the Dutch Council for Refugees is able to refer other lawyers in specific locations.

VII. LEGAL AID

Asylum seekers must make their request for asylum at the Central Location for Reception (Centraal Ontvangst Locatie) in Ter Apel. The screening and registration take place here. From there asylum seekers are transferred to an Application Centre. The Legal Aid Board in Asylum procedures is responsible for the organisation of legal aid. The legal Aid Board at these application centres provides the asylum seeker with a legal aid lawyer.

Lawyers provide legal aid to the asylum seeker after arrival and during the determination procedure in the Netherlands. In general, this legal aid is free and there is only a limited merits test applied.

VII. LEGAL AID

In accordance with the Law on International and Temporary Protection, asylum seekers in North Macedonia are entitled to legal assistance and free legal aid throughout the asylum procedure. Specifically, Article 22 of the Law provides that asylum seekers have the right to legal assistance and information regarding the conditions and procedure for the recognition of the right to asylum, as well as the right to free legal aid at all stages of the procedure, in accordance with the legislation governing free legal aid.

Furthermore, under the Law on Free Legal Aid, asylum seekers are entitled to legal representation by a lawyer from the beginning of the asylum procedure until its final conclusion. In practice, the Macedonian Young Lawyers Association (MYLA) represents asylum seekers during the initial administrative procedure before the Ministry of Interior. During judicial proceedings, legal representation is provided by lawyers appointed and funded by the state.

To ensure the availability of qualified legal representation, MYLA, in cooperation with the Ministry of Justice and the Bar Association (with support of UNHCR) established a specialized list of lawyers trained and authorized to represent asylum seekers. These lawyers are marked with an asterisk on the list published by the Ministry of Justice.

For the past five consecutive years, MYLA has been organizing specialized training programmes on asylum and refugee law for these lawyers, as well as for other legal professionals interested in this field. Through these trainings, MYLA contributes to strengthening the quality of legal representation and ensuring effective access to justice for asylum seekers.

VII. LEGAL AID

The Asylum Act enshrines the right of asylum applicants to free legal counselling at all stages of the asylum procedure. In practice, such assistance has been provided by the Portuguese Refugee Council (CPR) in line with a Memorandum of Understanding. The legal counselling provided by CPR also includes beneficiaries of international protection and, as such, processes such as family reunification, nationality acquisition processes, etc.

According to the Asylum Act, asylum applicants have the right to free legal aid at the appeal stage. This includes both lawyer's and court's fees. In practice, CPR supports access to the legal aid system upon request by the applicants.

The legal aid regime provides for a means assessment on the basis of the household income, as only applicants who do not hold sufficient income are entitled to free or more favourable conditions to access legal aid. Applications are submitted to the Institute of Social Security that conducts the means assessment and refers successful applications to the Portuguese Bar Association that appoints a lawyer, on the basis of a random selection procedure. Appointed lawyers may conduct a merits test.

IV. ORGANISATIONS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

On the Website of the Swiss Refugee Council (www.fluechtlingshilfe.ch) you will find a list with addresses and contact information of the NGO offices for free legal advice, sorted by cantons. Please contact the office in the canton where you are staying. On this list is indicated if the organisation has been appointed by the authorities (SEM) to provide legal protection after the allocation to a canton.

V. LAWYERS PROVIDING ADVICE TO ASYLUM SEEKERS

The organisations listed in the index above provide legal aid to asylum seekers for free or at minimal charges. Asylum seekers could also be represented at their expense by independent lawyers. The Swiss Refugee Council has a list of private lawyers who are specialized in asylum or foreigners' law. If you wish to mandate a lawyer, please contact the Swiss Refugee Council for further advice.

Please contact:

VII. LEGAL AID

The new asylum procedure as of March 2019 introduced the right for asylum seekers to receive free counselling and legal representation from the start of the procedure. This legal aid is provided by the different organisations in the Federal Asylum Centres (see above section VI). If the person is allocated to a canton, see list above section IV. Asylum seekers can also be represented at their expense by independent lawyers.
